

ENGLISH 5. WORKBOOK-1

UNIT 1. SCHOOL HOLIDAYS: PLACES TO GO

UNIT 1, Lesson 1, ex. 1a

Nikki:

Hi, my name's Nikki. I like summer. We have holidays in summer. These are my summer photos.

It's June. I am at home, but it's OK.

This is a July photo. I am at summer camp. The weather is warm and sunny. There are a lot of games, and discos in the evening. It's fun!

Oh, it's August. I am abroad here – in America. It is fantastic!

Pam and Sam:

Hello, we are Sam and Pam. We like summer, too. And our holidays are super! Look at the photos!

We are in the mountains. It's in June. The mountains are very beautiful.

It's July. We are at the seaside. It's very hot! Swimming is great in hot weather!

It's our August photo. Here we are in the country at our granny's. It's interesting.

UNIT 1, Lesson 10, ex. 1a

Last summer I went to the seaside with my family. We were there in August. We were very lucky. The weather was fantastic! It was very warm and sunny.

The 19th of August was Sunday, the last day at the seaside. It was so interesting!

We got up at nine o'clock, and at nine thirty we had breakfast.

Then I took my clothes for swimming and at ten fifteen we went to the sea.

At ten forty I jumped into the sea and swam a lot. The water was super. I liked it very much.

At twelve thirty we had some sandwiches and drank some water.

At two in the afternoon we had lunch.

At two fifty we went to a museum. There were a lot of birds, animals and fish there. They were very interesting and beautiful!

At six forty-five we had dinner. At seven thirty we went to the disco. There were a lot of children and their parents. We all danced a lot, and we liked the music.

Oh, on the 20th of August we went home in the morning. Our dad drove the car. I was sad...

UNIT 1, Lesson 10, ex. 4

On 4th April Matt had a birthday party. His friends and parents gave him a lot of presents. The children ate a chocolate cake and drank juice. They played games and danced. Then they went to the cinema. They watched a new film. It was very interesting. Matt was happy.

Nikita: Nastya and I went to Cheluskintsev park.
Interviewer: Cheluskintsev park?
Nikita: Yes, it's an amusement park in Minsk.
Interviewer: Oh, I see. Did you play on the see-saw?
Nikita: Oh no, I didn't. It's for little children.
Interviewer: OK. Did you ride a pony?
Nikita: Yes, I did. I like ponies.
Interviewer: Did you go on the rides?
Nikita: Yes, I did. I went on the merry-go-round.
Interviewer: OK. Did you buy any gifts?

Nikita: No, I didn't.

Interviewer: Did you have lunch in the café?

Nikita: No. I had lunch at home.

Interviewer: Thank you, Nikita.

Interviewer: Now, Nastya. You went to the amusement park with Nikita, didn't you?

Nastya: Yes, I did. It was fun!

Interviewer: Did you play on the seesaw or ride a pony?

Nastya: No, I didn't. I went on the rides. And... I went to the gift shop.

Interviewer: What did you buy?

Nastya: A present for my little sister.

Interviewer: Where did you have lunch, Nastya?

Nastya: At home.

Interviewer: Thank you, Nastya.

Nastya: You're welcome.

fireworks.

UNIT 4, Lesson 3, ex. 4

Belarusian people celebrate Victory Day on 9 May.

We always decorate streets with flags and lights. Before the holiday we usually invite veterans to school. We listen to their stories about the war. We give them flowers, cards and presents. It's usually exciting and touching.

On 9 May we can watch a parade in Minsk or on TV. It's always very interesting. In the evening there are fireworks in all cities and towns of Belarus.

Victory Day is a big holiday.
